Cookies

A cookie is a small text file that is sent along with the pages of a website, and is stored by the browser on your device. We use cookies to improve the service of our website; to make it easier to use. Cookies, among other applications, are used to keep you logged in on a website, or to store your preferences such as location and language settings. Using cookies, we can also keep track of how frequently and by which users our website is visited.

To place cookies we first need your permission. This permission is not required for necessary (functional) cookies and analytical cookies, as determined by applicable law, such as article 11.7a sub 3 of the Telecommunicatiewet en de ePrivacy Verordening. You can retract your permission for cookies at any point, by altering your internet settings. More information about the enabling/disabling and the removal of cookies can be found using the help-function of your browser.

Sharing your personal data with third parties

Without your permission, the Club will only share your personal data with third parties if this is necessary for the execution of the membership agreement that the Club has with you, unless the Club is required by law to share your personal data to these third parties. The table provides an overview of cases in which personal data is shared with third parties.

Inspection, correction and removal of personal data

You have the right to request the Club to enable you to inspect your personal data (unless the Club does not have to do this by law) and to complete, remove, or hide your personal data. When making such a request, you are obliged to identify yourself. In case you request removal of your data, the Club will pass on this removal to all other organisations the Club shared this data with.

Protection of personal data

The Club takes proper measures to protect your personal data against loss, unauthorised access, publication and wrongful processing. This way, the Club ensures that only the necessary persons have access to your data, that the access to your personal data is protected and that the safety measures are checked on a regular basis.

Minors

In case you are under 18 years old, and thus want to register as a minor, you need explicit approval by your parent or guardian.

Links to other websites

The website can contain links to other websites. This privacy statement is only applicable to the websites belonging to the Club. Other websites can apply their own privacy policy. The Club advises you to, when using other websites, always check their privacy policies.

Changes in the privacy policy

The Club will change its privacy policy from time to time, to keep it up-to-date. The latest version of its privacy policy will be published on the website. The Club advises you to check this privacy policy on a regular basis. For major changes, the Club will try its best to inform you via e-mail and via the website.
